

LIMA COP20 | CMP10
UN CLIMATE CHANGE CONFERENCE 2014

Gobierno del Perú

Follow us:

RAJENDRA PACHAURI CALLS FOR DRASTIC MEASURES TO MONITOR THE WORLD'S NATURAL RESOURCES

Rajendra K. Pachauri, President of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), organization with which received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2007, visited Lima and gave a lecture on the impact of climate change on the planet in prior to the COP20 conference.

Read more

ORGANIZATION AND LOGISTICS

President Ollanta Humala visited the COP20 Venue

Peruvian President Humala checked the progress of the temporary construction located in the National Army Headquarters (Cuartel General del Ejército), that has lent a large area of their installations for the development of the convention on Climate Change (COP20) that Peru will host in December.

Read more

NEGOTIATIONS

Peruvian Delegation attended to last round of negotiations prior to the COP20

Peruvian Delegation, led by Minister Manuel Pulgar-Vidal, attended to the final round of formal negotiations before the COP20 in Bonn, Germany. "Let's go from words to hope. Let's make things possible to show the world our responsibility", declared de Minister.

Read more

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Indigenous People attended to workshop to prepare for the COP20

The workshop "Preparatory regional workshops to COP20: Challenges and proposals of Amazonian indigenous peoples" took place in Iquitos, Loreto region, from October 14th to 16th in order to strengthen knowledge on climate change and the COP20 process of indigenous leaders.

Read more

PLAY YOUR PART

Play Your Part has 100,000 commitments against climate change

The first goal of this campaign has been achieved thanks to the stands in line 1 of Lima Metro, presentations at the MegaPlaza shopping centre and a constant spread of information through the social network Play your part (Pon de tu parte).

Read more

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT #CK4A

REDD+ countries have their "Academy"

We talked with Tim Christophersen, Senior Programme Officer of Forests and Climate Change at UNEP, about the initiative to contribute to the development of national capacity building for countries which implement REDD+ programs in the field to challenge climate change.

Read more

Climate change and coral reefs

A scientific study by Greenpeace reveals the emergency state of the coral reefs: if climate change is not stopped, the coral whitening will increase progressively in intensity, worldwide during the years 2030 - 2070 until its disappearance by the end of this century.

Read more

COP AGENDA - October

26 - 27 CSO Meeting

The Civil Society Program (CSO), a program of events including policy dialogues for civil society organizations, will have a meeting Preston Auditorium, World Bank, United States.

Read more

27 - 31 IPCC's Fifth Assessment Report

During the last year the Fifth Assessment Report that has been produced by different working groups on Stockholm, Yokohama and Berlin will present its Synthesis Report in Copenhagen in Denmark.

Read more

27 - 29 Global Stakeholders Dialogue: Taking Action on Climate Change

Considering the importance to create spaces of dialogue and information exchange between the different observing parties of the COP20, Global Stakeholders have been invited to coordinate with their Peruvian counterparts and civil society their goals and expectations for the coming COP20.

Read more

COP20 IN THE MEDIA

'We will succeed in these negotiations'

The Vice-Minister of Strategic Development of Natural Resources of Peru, Gabriel Quijandría, talked to Radio Universidad from Chile about COP20's challenges, prospects and proposals, as well as the key year that will face the host country of the United Nations climate summit.

Read more

Vice-Minister Quijandría: "The challenge is keeping up the momentum of the climate summit"

The Vice-Minister of Strategic Development of Natural Resources of Peru, Gabriel Quijandría, talked to Radio Universidad from Chile about COP20's challenges, prospects and proposals, as well as the key year that will face the host country of the United Nations climate summit.

Read more

OTHER NEWS

The first international workshop for journalists in preparation for COP20

PNUMA and MINAM organized the first international workshop for journalists in preparation for COP20, which received the attendance of 15 media professionals from Latin-America and 30 from Peru. Read here the presentations of the international speakers at the Workshop.

Read more

Peruvian glaciers have lost 40% of their surface because of climate change

In order to stop the disappearance of glaciers, influenced by climate change, the National Water Authority (Autoridad Nacional del Agua - ANA) presented the Inventory of Glaciers and Glacial Lakes with scientific official information providing measures of prevention.

Read more

Harry Lehmann shared the German experience to reduce GHG emissions at the MINAM

In preparation for COP20, Peru received the visit of german scientist Harry Lehmann, who gave a keynote conference at the Peruvian Ministry of the Environment's auditorium, about how Germany achieved a significant reduction of its greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions.

Read more

Minister of the Environment exposed COP20's major themes to Peruvian entrepreneurs

Reduce climate change is a mutual goal that involves all the sectors of society, that is why the Minister of the Environment, Manuel Pulgar-Vidal, met with 70 entrepreneurs in order to explain the importance of COP20 and the need to get the participation of this economic group.

Read more

READ MORE NEWS